

LAWMAKERS WHO'D HAVE TO QUIT A JOB

Rep. Luis Arroyo
(D-Chicago)

$64,247 (House)
$92,088 (projects administrator, Chicago Department of Water Management)

Rep. Richard Bradley
(D-Chicago)

$74,027 (House)
$99,084 (assistant general superintendent, Chicago Department of Streets and Sanitation)

Rep. John C. D'Amico
(D-Chicago)

$74,027 (House)
$91,520 (assistant district superintendent, Chicago Department of Water Management)

Rep. Mary Flowers
(D-Chicago)

$74,027 (House)
$52,081 (administrative assistant, Cook County Provident Hospital)

Rep. Esther Golar
(D-Chicago)

$64,247 (House)
$65,268 (information services coordinator, Chicago Police Department)

Rep. Deborah L. Graham
(D-Chicago)

$74,027 (House)
$67,656 (coordinator of special projects, Chicago Department of Planning)

Rep. Joseph Lyons
(D-Chicago)

$81,358 (House)
$93,562 (manager of training and development, Cook County Department of Human Resources)

Sen. Iris Y. Martinez
(D-Chicago)

$83,804 (Senate)
$92,112 (assistant commissioner, Chicago Department of Human Services)

Rep. Susana Mendoza
(D-Chicago)

$74,027 (House of Representatives)
$72,852 (Project Coordinator, Chicago Department of Planning)

Rep. Robert Rita
(D-Blue Island)

$74,027 (House)
$84,572 (administrative analyst, Cook County Highway Department)